¹Residence hall occupancy/capacity tabulated on August 28, 2023; Greek house occupancy/capacity reported on October 17, 2023.

²Some residence halls may indicate over occupancy where supplemental housing is in effect. Supplemental housing is a temporary type of assignment where students might live in non-traditional spaces such as floor lounges. Because these are intended to be temporary assignments, these spaces are not included in capacity figures.

³Three, one-bedroom apartment buildings (Buildings J, K and L) are expanded for undergraduate housing with a capacity of 2 students per apartment. For the remaining buildings in University Village, capacity is determined by the number of individual contracts available per apartment.

⁴Health Sciences Campus townhome/home capacity is determined by the number of individual contracts available per unit.
