¹ Residence hall occupancy/capacity tabulated on August 29, 2022; Greek house occupancy/capacity reported on October 4, 2022.

² Some residence halls indicate over occupancy where supplemental housing is in effect. Supplemental housing is a temporary type of assignment where students might live in non-traditional spaces such as floor lounges. Because these are intended to be temporary assignments, these spaces are not included in capacity figures.

⁴ Health Sciences Campus townhome/home capacity is determined by the number of individual contracts available per unit.
